What's New This Week??

Don't forget to RSVP for the first meeting of the semester, "The Best of Purdue Life" on Wednesday, August 25th @5:30PM. Not only will it give you a chance to meet new and old graduate women in engineering, but you will also learn some of the things that Purdue has to offer. Even if you aren't an incoming student, there will be things we think may be new to you as well! Don't forget to RSVP for the meeting by SUNDAY, AUGUST 22nd so we make sure to have enough food. RSVP for the meeting at https://engineering.purdue.edu/WIEP/Surveys/GMPrsvp

If you are new to Purdue and will be at the New Grad Student Convocation, come stop by WIEP GMPs table at the information fair to learn more!

Also—the first Monday Munchies this year will be @3:30 on September 13th and be sponsored by Frito Lay! Mark your calendar!

As always, if you have any ideas for the newsletter send to: wiepmm@purdue.edu
