

Water enters a cylindrical tank through two pipes at volumetric flow rates of Q_1 and Q_2 . If the level in the tank remains constant, calculate the average velocity of the flow leaving the tank through a pipe with an area, A_3 .

