Global Real Estate & Agricultural Finance Freshman & Sophomore Externship

The MetLife Investment Management (“MIM”) Future Leaders Program is a virtual experiential learning externship for diverse Freshman and Sophomore students to gain broad exposure to careers in commercial real estate and agricultural finance.

MetLife Investment Management, the institutional asset management business of MetLife, Inc., is a global public fixed income, private capital, real estate and agricultural investment manager providing tailored investment solutions to institutional investors worldwide. We also offer private fixed income, real estate and agricultural financing solutions. MIM has more than 900 dedicated professionals with extensive experience and expertise across the platform and, as of December 31, 2020, had $659.6 billion in total assets under management.\(^1\)

Visit us at investments.metlife.com to learn more.

Throughout the Future Leaders program, students will be able to:

- Participate in an immersive learning experience including a fundamental overview of commercial real estate and agriculture, personal branding, and transferable skills workshops
- Meet top students across the country and network with experienced Real Estate and Agricultural Finance professionals to learn about different career paths at MetLife Investment Management
- Cultivate valuable skills and foundational knowledge, while also receiving the opportunity to interview earlier for the MetLife Investment Management summer 2022 internship program

Details on next page.

\(^1\) Total AUM is comprised of all MetLife general account and separate account assets and unaffiliated/third party assets, at estimated fair value, managed by MIM.
