JOB DESCRIPTION

Kokomo Grain Co., Inc, a family-owned grain company has an immediate need for a Facility Manager at the Winamac, IN facility. Manager will oversee grain being received, stored, and shipped while ensuring facility is run safely and efficiently.

Responsibilities:

- Selects, trains, and develops elevator operations staff and seasonal employees
- Supervises elevator operations staff and conduct employee reviews
- Oversees the daily work of the facility and equipment maintenance
- Manages the work of employees in the movement of grain between bins at facility
- Maintain grain quality by segregating, drying, blending, and aerating grain
- Ensure safety meetings are held regularly and safety records and training are kept up to date
- Maintain accountability for safety in all aspects of operations per OSHA guidelines
- Ensure integrity of specialty crop program
- Develop relationships with facility employees as well as farmers and truck drivers

What to Bring:

- Previous management experience required
- Dependable/flexible in work hours to meet the needs of customers and during harvest

What You Will Get:

- Medical, Dental and Vision benefits
- 401K – Traditional and/or Roth
- Life Insurance
- Paid Time Off/Holidays
- Continuing Education

Salary: Commensurate with experience

This job description is intended to describe the general nature and level of work performed. It does not include all responsibilities and skills required of the job and may change at any time. All responsibilities must be completed in compliance with all safety protocols, policies and procedures of Kokomo Grain Co., Inc.

Please send resumes to: jchapin@kokomograin.com or call at (765)236-4170.