Chief Financial Officer – Rolling Wheels Farm, located near Indianapolis, IN Person to be in charge of all farm financial and production records and their use in management decisions.

This would be a one person department where you would be working with the owner to use the information from the records to improve all aspects of farm operations and profitability.

We are a family owned 10,000+ acre crop farm based near Indianapolis.

This is an opportunity to be part of the top management team. No corporate ladder here to climb taking several years before you can use your education to make a difference.

You will be a part of all aspects of entrepreneurship and making business decisions based on your records and research.

If interested – please send your resume to Andy Oppy, aoppy@purdue.edu, at your earliest convenience.