JOB OPENING
Industrial Division

Food and Pharma MDT (Department #79)

Position: Sustainability Application Engineer

Overview: Work heavily with the corporate sustainability assessment team in all aspects of conducting assessments and designing products. Additionally, this individual will be responsible for technical support for applications supported by the Food and Pharma MDT.

Duties:
- Work with sustainability assessment team on data collection and product selection
- Design new products to meet our customers sustainability needs.
- Travel to customers sites to help conduct sustainability assessments.
- Generate reports for sustainability assessments and present findings to customers.
- Help develop future sales tools for the sustainability team.
- Work with customers and sales engineers on technical support, application support and product selection for Food customers.
- Evaluate and cross referencing of competitive products
- Perform product testing, evaluation, and analysis in support of product design and applications.
- Actively participate in and contribute to various corporate process improvement programs

Team Activities:
- Actively support the corporate, division and team goals.
- Demonstrate an ongoing commitment to teamwork, corporate and team initiatives.
- Communicate effectively with many internal and external partners.

Requirements:
- Minimum of an accredited bachelor’s degree in Mechanical Engineering, General Engineering, other technical degree is required.
- Some experience with Spraying Systems Co. products and processes is preferred.
- Ability to work effectively in a team-oriented environment, and with people in all areas of the organization.
- Good written, presentation, verbal communication and interpersonal skills.
- Computer literacy.
- Basic knowledge of manufacturing processes and capabilities used by SSCO.
- Ability to multitask and effectively prioritize a diverse workload.
- Passion for sustainability
- Travel will be required