

2019 Guys and Dollies Summer Internships:

Purdue University's premier choice for student storage, moving, and shipping.

About Guys and Dollies:

Guys and Dollies is a complete summer storage service. Since 2009, Guys and Dollies has helped students save time and money by making their move simple and stress-free! Here's how it works: Guys and Dollies will deliver free boxes to any student wanting to use our storage services and then come back and pick up the student's items during move out week in May. The items are stored for the summer months and then delivered back to the student when school starts in the fall.

Most Purdue students leave West Lafayette for the summer months however Guys and Dollies is still operating all summer long. During the summer months we will also pick up or deliver student's items that are taking summer school classes. We help students move from one apartment to another in the middle of the summer if they are changing leases as well as storing items between when apartment leases end and begin.

Summer 2019 Guys and Dollies Internships:

Start: We can start using help at the beginning of finals week which starts April 29th.

End: We can use help all the way until August 31, 2019.

We are seeking two Summer Interns to assist in the management and operations of storage, shipping and moving activities. From these positions, you will learn how to run a business through hands on experience. Advertising, marketing, managing, customer service and many other aspects of a start-up business come to life. The ideal candidates are ones with an entrepreneurial spirit, looking to grow their communication and people skills, a positive attitude and teamwork mindset, and planning to stay local in the West Lafayette area during the summer months. Past interns have taken summer classes and have enjoyed the flexible schedule that our internship offers.

If you already have a summer commitment for a couple weeks but are looking for a position for the rest of the summer we would love to talk to you. Your work load will vary a lot depending on the week throughout the summer. The months of May and August will be very busy for Guys and Dollies. On the contrary, June is our slowest month of the summer.

Start and end times are flexible; however there will be Guys and Dollies work during that whole time period mentioned above. We can talk through this part to see what availability looks like.
