Looking for an undergraduate student in ABE with interest in research work related to creating smart irrigation systems for developing countries.

- The research candidate will investigate existing irrigation systems in the Arequipa region of Peru
- Collaborate with professors at Purdue and the Universidad Nacional San Agustin to develop a novel method for improving the efficiency of irrigation systems in this region.

Junior standing preferred, GPA Above 3.0. flexible hours but, expect to work 10 hours per week. Spanish language skills preferred.

For information please contact professors Brittany Newell or Jose Garcia at:

bnewell1@purdue.edu
jmgarcia@purdue.edu