Internship Opportunity

Immediate opportunity for Internships in Agricultural sales.

Location: Nationwide - opportunities in most states

Hours: Flexible

Job Description and Responsibilities are as Follows. Interns will be responsible for collecting the contact Information of local ranchers and introducing them to PRF, Pasture, Rangeland, and Forage. A rainfall index, federally subsidized government program. Interns will then send the contact information and any other necessary information back to us. Some cold calls and minimal travel may be required.

Job Requirements: Interns will need to supply their own phone, computer, transportation, and housing.

Desired Characteristics. The ideal candidate will be living in a rural area and enjoy talking with ranchers about their operations. They will be clear communicators, and easily able to engage in conversation with local ranchers. The Intern will represent the company in a professional manner and accurately gather all needed information. The Ideal candidate will have a basic understanding of ranching in their area. Hours are flexible and may work around other jobs or responsibilities. Payment will start at twelve dollars an hour with opportunity for bonuses.

Any interested candidate will need to send a resume to kaylee@ozarkhillsinsurance.com
For any questions please call
David Hall - (417)-293-1072
david@ozarkhillsinsurance.com