Job title
High Clearance Tractor Operator (Pollen Collections/Applications)–Summer 2020

Reports to
Field Mgmt Team

Date
July 2020

Pay Range
$15-16/hour

Job purpose
Operation of a high clearance field tractor designated to either collect or apply pollen over corn field acres assigned.

Duties and responsibilities
- This role requires dedication to safety, confidentiality and extreme protection of Accelerated Ag Technologies critical and proprietary assets.
- Activities will be conducted at a rapid pace, requiring flexibility, attention to detail, careful and accurate handling and driving.
- Incumbents must be able and willing to work in varied outdoor agricultural conditions including Iowa summer heat and humidity, corn field conditions including insect exposure, uneven terrains, narrow and sight limited workspaces with active agricultural equipment in operation.
- Incumbent will be expected to operate the vehicle safely, cautiously and navigate uneven terrains without disrupting pollen, equipment/machines and or persons on machines or on foot in fields.
- Incumbent will load and unload product properly, carefully, and efficiently as needed.
- Incumbent must be observant and will be accountable to monitor machine operation including; efficient and proper operation of the machine, the collection and or application apparatus, computer technology utilized on the tractor.
- Incumbent will be accountable to determine if or when mechanical assistance is required for safe, efficient or continued operations.
- Incumbent must become familiar with and follow all AAT safety protocols and encourage other team members to do the same.
- Incumbent may be required to drive a vehicle assigned to tow/haul.
- Collaborate with others in a field team environment.
- Ability and willingness to cross-train for other jobs within the organization as needed
- Ability to travel throughout the Midwest as needed for multiple days in a row
- Ability to work nights and weekends
- Walking, standing or sitting for prolonged period of time.
- Ability to drive field vehicle for prolonged periods.

Qualifications
- Valid drivers license with good driving record – all candidates driving records will be checked.
- Highly organized and willing to adapt to changing working conditions and needs
- Familiar with computer/PC/laptop operations
- Experience operating off-road vehicles beneficial
- Prior farm, field or agricultural work a plus
- Academic exposure in an AG related field will highly benefit the incumbent in understanding processes and procedures

Apply Online
Please visit our website at https://powerpollen.com/career-openings-2019/ to learn more about the company, view all current job postings, and apply online. Questions can be sent to careers@powerpollen.com.