JEFF
MEREDITH

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER,
CHAMBERLAIN GROUP

Jeff Meredith is the CEO of Chamberlain Group. He joined the company in 2019 as the President and Chief Operating Officer, leading the Residential, Commercial, Automotive, and Delivery Business Units.

Jeff is passionate about Chamberlain Group's transformation to a leading software company within the access solutions industry. He merges his background in engineering, sales, marketing, and tech to guide the team through this evolution and ensure the shared vision is clear.

Prior to Chamberlain Group, Jeff held multiple executive leadership roles at Lenovo, most recently as the SVP & General Manager of the Global Consumer Business Unit. In this role, he was responsible for the $11.5B P&L, Product Portfolio, and Marketing for all of Lenovo's Consumer products including PCs, Tablets, Gaming, AR/VR, and Smart Home. He was also responsible for a 27% increase in Lenovo's overall revenue and restored the #1 global market share position for its consumer PCs.

Jeff is an Advisory Board Member for Northwestern University's Master of Science, Product Design, and Development Management (mpd²) program. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering and a Master of Business Administration from Purdue University's Krannert School of Management.

Jeff is married with three children, is an avid Chicago White Sox and Kentucky Wildcats fan, and has a knowledge of pop culture that might surprise you.
