The callout was held in HAMP 1252 and we greeted the students with pizza and refreshments. The meeting started at around 5:15pm.

Ali began the meeting with an introduction about the goals of CEGSAC this coming academic year, the goal for the “Breaking Barriers” initiative and the focus to strengthen advocacy.

Then, Ali started a presentation about CEGSAC with an overview about our committees, the purpose of our organization, our meeting schedule, planned events and past events.

We moved to talk about each committee:

- Advocacy
  - Ali, along with PGSG (Purdue Graduate Student Government), is working to offer advocacy events so graduate students are aware of the available resources Purdue University has for their concerns. The planned events are as follows with their tentative dates:
    - CAPS Info Session – October 2017
    - Purdue Ombuds – November 2017
    - Assertiveness – February 2018
    - Work/Life Balance Speaker – March 2018

- Health and Wellness
  - Ali talked about the purpose of having health and wellness events, where students can find a time to forget about their work for a bit, relax and enjoy a good time with friends to balance a healthy Graduate School life. The planned events are:
    - Destresser Night: Fall – November 2017
    - Destresser Night: Spring – Spring 2018
    - Coffee Break Sessions – Every two weeks

- Outreach
  - Agustin talked about the purpose of this committee, to provide students the opportunity to give back to the community. Other than the planned activities, Agustin will post on facebook the link to activities on campus and the Greater Lafayette community where students can volunteer. The planned events are:
