

CE 563
Airport Design
Design Project
Fall 2014

Site Investigation Results

Using the available soils data, please prepare a report of the site investigation. As a minimum, your results should include: Layout, indicating the location of each soil type; soil classification for each soil type (gradation and atterberg limits); strength test results; density-moisture relationship results.