

Scientific Writing

Workshops for international students

*Spring 2023
Workshops*

*Wednesdays
2-3:15pm
Online*

www.purdue.edu/place
email: place@purdue.edu
For details and registration

Workshops are open to all international students. Registration required.

This writing workshop series is for international students who want to be to become more confident, accurate, and efficient in scientific research writing. Each workshop focuses on different but related topics, skills, and strategies to help participants improve their writing. Workshop topics include understanding scientific writing and its important features, writing an effective title & abstract, describing visuals in a scientific paper, and revising your own scientific work.