

Whirlpool Engineering Rotational Leadership Development (WERLD)

Impactful assignments, global team projects, integrated training, coaching and mentoring – get ready to develop your engineering career.

| Program Description

Full Time: WERLD is focused on developing a strong engineering foundation in order to prepare participants for the variety of career paths available within Whirlpool's Global Product Organization. Program participants benefit from impactful assignments, global team projects, integrated training, potential for a technical Master's degree and formal coaching and mentoring programs.

Internship: 3 Month Summer Program at the Whirlpool Technology Centers in Benton Harbor/MI.

| Program Highlights

Hands On Experience Our WERLD Interns & Engineers work on projects that directly impact our products.

Full Time - International and Manufacturing Rotations Opportunity to lead a project in one of our global technology centers in Latin America or Asia and/ or a manufacturing plant in the US.

Full Time - Master's Degree Sponsorship Technical masters for interested participants offered as part of the program.

30+ Years Alumni Community Great networking opportunities

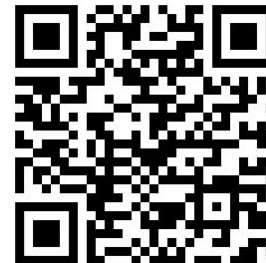

| Who We're Looking For

- Bachelor's or Master's Degree in Materials Science, Mechanical Engineering, Chemical Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Computer Engineering/Science or relevant engineering field
- Cumulative G.P.A. of 2.8/4.0 or higher
- Ability to apply engineering theory to practical problems and demonstrated technical ability through project work
- Ability to clearly communicate technical concepts at a high level and in depth
- Ability to work with and lead teams

Intern

Full Time

Apply
today!