White Space Design Challenge

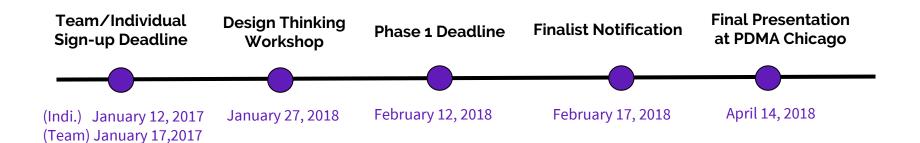

2017-2018 Info Session
Presented by PDMA and the Segal Professional Bridge

What is the White Space Design Challenge?

- A cross-university design competition held by the Product Development and Management Association (PDMA) and SPB
- Encourages teams to develop unique and innovative solutions by walking through the iterative design process
- Teams will be given mentorship and taught by experts
- Networking opportunities

Key Dates

Teams

- Teams will be composed of 4-6 students from the greater Chicagoland area universities
- All team members must be from the same university
- If you do not already have a team, but wish to apply to the WSDC, apply as an individual and we will match you with other applicants

Attending Universities

Finding White Space

In order to participate in the WSDC, teams must find their own white space in the world, and design off of it.

- Research
- Following trends
- Intellectual property search
- Iterating existing solution

Phases

Phase 1

- When: February 12th, 2018
- What: Documentation containing all details of the new product concept

Finalists Notified

- When: February 17th, 2018
- What: Finalists teams will be notified
- Finalists will be given professional mentors and begin the design process for their new product

Why should YOU participate?

- All finalists will have the opportunity to present their final prototypes at the 2018
 PDMA Conference in Chicago
- Numerous networking opportunities
- First Place Team: $1500
- Second Place Team: $1000
- Third Place Team: $500

Apply!

Application can be found here: https://tinyurl.com/y7owmgl3

If you have any questions, please email SPB at spb@u.northwestern.edu