LET'S TALK ABOUT DISABILITY: Upcoming Events

Education to Employment: Preparing for the Workforce
6:30 PM—8:00 PM in WALC 2087
This panel will be answering your questions about internships and post-grad job exploration.

The Intersections of Disability, Race, & Gender
6:30 PM—7:30 PM in WALC 2087
Vilissa Thompson will be talking about the way in which multiple identities change the experience of disability.

Service Dog Panel
6:30 PM—8:00 PM in WALC 2087
This panel will consist of handlers and their animals. They will discuss the difference between service animals & emotional support animals and dispel some of the myths about both.
Comedy Night
6:30 PM—8:00 PM in WALC 2087

Through videos and sharing stories, we will discuss important issues around disability in a humorous way. There will be opportunities for participants to share their stories.

Sex, Love, & Disability
6:30 PM—8:00 PM in WALC 2087

Sexuality is something that belongs as much to people with disabilities as to anyone else. This will be a candid discussion about sex and disability.

CART Services Provided

The Disability Resource Center (DRC) is committed to making these events accessible to all attendees. CART services will be provided at all events. If you have any concerns about accessibility or have questions about the events, please contact our office at (765) 494-1247.

Like us on Facebook for more information:
Disability Resource Center at Purdue University