Research Made Easy: Finding & Evaluating Sources

March 3, 2015
4:30 – 5:30 PM
HEAV 220

Learn to evaluate the information you find during your research. This hands-on workshop will help you decide which sources are both reliable and relevant.

Bring your laptop if you have one and any current research topic or assignment to take advantage of the interactive elements of this event.

Advance registration is required, so call or stop by the Writing Lab to reserve your seat.
