Use the space below, or attach ONE typed, single-spaced page summarizing the design work you have completed that should be considered for this award. Include a statement of the problem and what makes your design work unique; a technical description; the innovation and impact of your work (what influence it may have on future design practices); and how your early design experience has influenced your outlook on this field. Also identify any special recognition (awards), relevant publications, and/or presentations.
