

The facilities in this laboratory support undergraduate education in use of basic digital components, hardware description languages, and programmable logic devices. Laboratory workstations include a networked PC, a mixed signal digital oscilloscope, a function generator, a digital multi-meter, and a universal device programmer.

For more information contact Prof. David G. Meyer.

Tel (office): (765) 494-3476

E-mail: *meyer@purdue.edu*

Room: EE 67

Tel (lab): (765) 494-5620