

April 1, 2009

To: The Faculty of the College of Engineering
From: Division of Construction Engineering and Management (CEM)
Subject: New Course CEM 59700

The Faculty of the Division of Construction Engineering and Management (CEM) has approved the following new course to offer independent study projects and/or temporary courses. This action is now submitted to the Engineering Faculty with recommendation for approval.

CEM 59700 Advanced Construction Engineering Projects

Sem. 1, 2 SS. Cr.0-6.

Course Description: Topics vary. Arrange Hours and Credit. Permission of Instructor required.

Reason: The Division of Construction Engineering and Management will be offering projects and courses to Purdue graduate and undergraduate students. The goal is to provide students the opportunity to explore construction engineering topics.

Makand Hastak

April 1, 2009

Professor and Head

Division of Construction Engineering and Management (CEM)