Two new officers have joined the ranks of the West Lafayette Police Department. The Exponent sat down with each of them to ask about their experiences and expectations going forward.

Chloe Martin

Martin, 19, is a recent graduate of Indiana University who received her Bachelor of Arts degree in May. While she is new to the department, she has a background in military enforcement. She moved to West Lafayette from Florida after graduating from high school and was accepted into the Purdue Police Academy this month, according to a WLPD press release. "I'm just excited to get everything down and have it all learned and get started," Martin said.

Oscar Licena

Licena, 25, is a Lafayette native and Lafayette Jefferson High School graduate. After serving in the Army from 2007 to 2012 as a military police officer, he was a police officer in another area before coming to West Lafayette. He said he is excited to start his new job. "I'm coming from the military police and I'm coming, so for this I'm going to change," he said. "I'm just excited for it." He said he is excited to start his new job.
