

Summary

The 2014 Civil Engineering Study Abroad concluded their 14 day trip with 7 days on two narrowboats traveling the Stourport Ring in the United Kingdom Midlands. Students were introduced to many bridges, tunnels, and locks that were constructed in the 19th Century. The voyage consisted of 74 miles of canal and river waterways and included the operation of 105 locks by the students.

