

R. H. Kohr Graduate Student Fellowship In Mechanical Engineering Announcement

The R. H. Kohr Graduate Student Fellowship in Mechanical Engineering is funded by the R. H. Kohr Educational Memorial Fund in memory of Mechanical Engineering professor Dr. Kohr. The Fellowship will support ME graduate students in the general areas of simulation, which was Dr. Kohr's main field of academic interest. Each recipient will receive a scholarship of $4,800. One recipient will be selected for each year.

Eligibility:

Graduate students who study or do research in the general areas of simulation are eligible to apply.

Selection criteria:

1. Excellent academic achievement.
2. Excellent research performance.
3. Leadership within a research group or community, including mentoring of graduate and undergraduate students.

Application will consist of:

- A resume which indicates study or research interests.
- Up to date transcripts.
- An essay (max of 2 pages) from the student to describe how they meet the above selection criteria.
- A recommendation letter from ME faculty.

Please email your application in one PDF file to megradoffice@purdue.edu by deadline posted on ME Grad Blog. Recommendation letters can be directly emailed to megradoffice@purdue.edu by faculty, but subject line must specify student and which award applies.
