Purdue’s Honor Pledge

Purdue's Honor Pledge was developed by students to advance a supportive environment that promotes academic integrity and excellence. It is intended that this pledge inspires Boilermakers of all generations to stay “on track” to themselves and their University. “As a boilermaker pursuing academic excellence, I pledge to be honest and true in all that I do. Accountable together - we are Purdue.” https://www.purdue.edu/provost/teachinglearning/honor-pledge.html

Resources for Mental Health

- If you find yourself beginning to feel some stress, anxiety and/or feeling slightly overwhelmed, try WellTrack, https://purdue.welltrack.com/. Sign in and find information and tools at your fingertips, available to you at any time.
- If you need support and information about options and resources, please see the Office of the Dean of Students, http://www.purdue.edu/odos, for drop-in hours (M-F, 8 am- 5 pm).
- If you’re struggling and need mental health services: Purdue University is committed to advancing the mental health and well-being of its students. If you or someone you know is feeling overwhelmed, depressed, and/or in need of mental health support, services are available. For help, such individuals should contact Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) at (765)494-6995 and http://www.purdue.edu/caps/ during and after hours, on weekends and holidays, or by going to the CAPS office of the second floor of the Purdue University Student Health Center (PUSH) during business hours.

Students with Disabilities

- The Disability Resource Center (DRC) is a resource for students and instructors. Students may present a “Letter of Accommodation” to you at any point in the semester. Should you have questions about accommodations, please contact the DRC at: 494-1247 or drc@purdue.edu. In many cases the DRC can partner with you to develop inclusive teaching strategies that benefit all students in your class.
- Accessibility and Accommodations Syllabus Statement: The DRC recommends the following statement be included in your syllabus. “Purdue University strives to make learning experiences as accessible as possible. If you anticipate or experience physical or academic barriers based on disability, you are welcome to let me know so that we can discuss options. You are also encouraged to contact the Disability Resource Center at: drc@purdue.edu or by phone: 765-494-1247.” http://www.purdue.edu/drc/faculty/syllabus.html
- Assistance with Making Learning Materials Accessible. Purdue’s new Innovative Learning group website includes:
  - Information on Universal Design for learning
  - Includes our Create Accessible Documents webpage:
    - How-to training videos and step-by-step documents for faculty to train themselves in making their own course documents accessible
- Self-check checklists for evaluation of their own formatting work
- Request in-person training on formatting documents
- Direct link to request Document Formatting Assistance. The team has 10 student workers ready to assist, and all work is completed in the order it is received.

Purdue’s Nondiscrimination Policy

Purdue University is committed to maintaining a community which recognizes and values the inherent worth and dignity of every person; fosters tolerance, sensitivity, understanding, and mutual respect among its members; and encourages each individual to strive to reach his or her own potential. In pursuit of its goal of academic excellence, the University seeks to develop and nurture diversity. The University believes that diversity among its many members strengthens the institution, stimulates creativity, promotes the exchange of ideas, and enriches campus life. Purdue’s nondiscrimination policy can be found at: http://www.purdue.edu/purdue/ea_eou_statement.html.
