Hi Ladies! Happy Monday! You're in the home stretch for the semester! Keep up the hard work!

Mid Year GMP Survey!

It is that time of year again to complete our mid-year survey! We highly value your opinion and we look forward to improving from your suggestions.

People who participate in the survey will be entered into a raffle for a prize!

Feature of the week: Volunteer Science Fair Judge!

The Wea Ridge Elementary School Fourth Grade Invention Convention is looking for judges to work on Thursday, November 17, 2011. The judging will be 2 sessions (9:30 to 10:30 and 10:45 to 11:45).

The kids think it's cool that scientists and engineers come to judge their projects, and the teachers appreciate our volunteered time. Please take advantage of this opportunity to represent your profession! You may be the first science or engineering professional the student has met, and the memory you create will impact that child's life. In addition, the model you provide may influence a student's career choice.

Please contact Brenda Hofmann if you would like to volunteer!

Future Maker - Do you know a Boilermaker who thrives on helping others?

These students are leaders who don't just have a vision but also have an innate desire to help others discover and reach their goals. Maybe they mentor school children through College Mentors for Kids or they are an upperclassman who mentors freshmen in their major.
