

ADVANCED

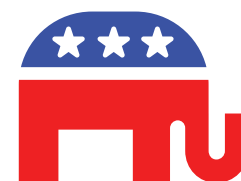

METHODOLOGIES AT PURDUE:

Behavioral, Health, and Social Sciences Symposium (AMAP)

OCTOBER 29-30, 2018

“FAKERY IN CAMPAIGNS AND ELECTIONS: CAN IT BE STOPPED?”

OCT. 29, 2018

7:30 TO 9:30 PM

FOWLER HALL

Monday Oct. 29

Panel 1 - 8:30 to 10:30 am,
Stewart Center: 214AB

Teaching Old Dogs New Tricks: Innovative
Approaches to Survey and Experimental Research

Panel 2 - 11:00 to 1:00 pm,
Stewart Center: 214AB

Triangulating Qualitative & Quantitative
Research Designs

Panel 3 - 2:00 to 4:00 pm, Stewart Center: 214AB

Connecting Theory and Methodology in Behavioral, Health, & Social Science Research

Tuesday Oct. 30

Brainstorming Session - 9:00-11:30 am,
Stewart Center: 214AB

Future Directions for the “Advanced Methods at Purdue” Cluster

SPONSORS

Office of the Provost; College of Health and Human Sciences; College of Liberal Arts; Department of Psychological Sciences; Department of Political Science; Human Development and Family Studies; Department of Sociology; Brian Lamb School of Communication; Department of Anthropology; Purdue Policy Research Institute; and the Integrative Data Science Initiative.

For more information:

www.conf.purdue.edu/AMAP