

SWAIM Room, HSSE Library, 4th Floor

Friday, February 28, 2:30-3:30pm

Data Colonialism: Rethinking Research/Data Ethics

Kim Gallon, Kendall Roark, Laura Zanotti and Stephanie Zywicki

Friday, March 27, 2:30-3:30pm

The University in Turbulent Times: Power, Technology & Inequality
Holly Okonkwo, Lindsay Weinberg and Madisson Whitman

Friday, April 24, 2:30-3:30pm

Fear of Small Numbers: Critical Data Studies and Violence

Megha Anwer, Rebekah Klein-Pejšová, Bill Mullen,

and Laura Zanotti

Critical Data Studies at Purdue University is a multi-disciplinary community that fosters critical conversations on the ethical, legal, socio-cultural, epistemological and political aspects of data science, big data and digital infrastructure.

Find out more at: https://purdue.edu/critical-data-studies

