Bill McKibben, Schumann Distinguished Scholar at Middlebury College, Founder and Senior Advisor, 350.org, will present a talk titled, “Hot Times: Reports from the Front Lines of the Climate Fight,” at 7:30 p.m. in Fowler Hall in Stewart Center. McKibben’s talk will be followed by a facilitated discussion led by Justin Dearborn, CEO of TRONC Inc. McKibben’s Discovery Park Lecture Series talk is also part of the official launch of Purdue’s new Environmental and Sustainability Studies (ESS) Certificate. The event is co-sponsored by the College of Liberal Arts.

William Ernest “Bill” McKibben is an American environmentalist, author, and journalist who has written extensively on the impact of global warming.

In 2014 he was awarded the Right Livelihood Prize.

His 1989 book The End of Nature is regarded as the first book about climate change for a general audience.
