

Free Breakfast Workshop & Roundtable

Thursday,
Feb. 7, 2019

7:30AM - 11:30 AM

SOIL HEALTH SYSTEMS for AGRICULTURAL RESILIENCE

LOCATION:

Koinonia Retreat Center
6147 South 650 East
Pierceton, IN 46562

DATE / TIME

Thursday, February 7th
7:30 AM - 11:30 AM
Check-in Starts 7:30 AM

COST:

None - Registration required
by January 31st
Catered Breakfast Provided

CEUs Requested

PRESENTED BY:

- Kosciusko County SWCD
- Whitley County SWCD
- Indiana Conservation Cropping Systems Initiative
- The Watershed Foundation

Join Rick Clark and other innovative farmers as they share their experiences using cover crops and other soil health systems as a pathway to build resilience against extreme weather conditions.

7:30–8:15AM Registration & Breakfast
Catered by Manchester University

8:15AM Featured Topics and Speakers

- Jeff Dukes — Purdue University
Building Agricultural Resilience Against Extreme Weather
- Stephanie McLain & Tony Bailey — NRCS
Principles of Soil Health & Nutrient Management
- Rick Clark — Williamsport, IN Farmer
Integrating Cover Crops & Soil Health Practices into a Farming Operation

11:20–11:30AM Closing Remarks

11:30AM Networking and Q&A
(Refreshments Provided)

REGISTRATION BY JANUARY 31ST

- Online: <https://tinyurl.com/Farmer-Breakfast>
- Questions: Andrea Baker, Kosciusko County SWCD
Phone: (574) 267-7445 ext. 3
Email: Andrea.Baker@in.nacdnet.net

