Prescribing an American Tragedy: A Symposium on Opioid Misuse in the U.S.

Friday Jan 18th – 1pm to 4pm
Fowler Hall (Stewart Center), Purdue University

The use of opioids outside the bounds of a doctor's prescription has evolved into a public health crisis in America. This symposium brings together a panel of experts to highlight current research and discuss the challenges of resolving this crisis.

Speakers will include:

Mr. Michael Budd, Chair of the Tippecanoe County Opioid Task Force and CEO of United Way of Lafayette

Dr. Shannon Monnat, Lerner Chair for Public Health Promotion, Syracuse University

Dr. Brea Perry, Professor of Sociology, Indiana University

Dr. Michael Vuolo, Associate Professor of Sociology, The Ohio State University

Hon. Loretta Rush, Chief Justice of the Indiana Supreme Court

Program: 1-4pm with reception to follow in Robert L. Ringel Gallery 4-5pm

Please RSVP to Lisa Stacey staceyl@purdue.edu

Note: Guests without parking permits should park in the Grant Street public pay garage, a brief walk to Stewart Center.
