

SAVE THE DATE

---

AUGUST 12 & 13

Don't miss these inaugural events aimed at increasing wide-spread understanding of Indiana's complex water resources and responding to our future needs .

with renowned author and speaker Charles Fishman, The Big Thirst

WATER SUMMIT INAUGURAL EVENTS!

AUGUST 12 | 5-8 pm
INDIANA STATE MUSEUM

A kick-off event featuring keynote speakers discussing relevant national water issues, specific challenges facing Indiana's water resources, and what individual citizens can do to engage in water planning and protection efforts. Enjoy light hors d'oeuvres, exclusive after-hours access to the Museum's natural history exhibits, and a book signing with speaker Charles Fishman, author of The Big Thirst.

CONTENT IS BEST SUITED FOR AGES 14+.

AUGUST 13 | 8:30-5 pm
JW MARRIOT

An action-driven forum aimed at building widespread understanding about competing water needs, the status of Indiana's water resources, and the best-practice planning strategies needed to guide Indiana's water future. Interactive sessions, speakers, and panels will feature national, state, and regional experts across the full spectrum of water users, researchers, and policy makers.

MORE INFORMATION | IndianaWaterSummit.org

