

Fourth Midwest Membrane Trafficking and Signaling Symposium

October 27th, 2017

Purdue University, West Lafayette IN

A one day symposium to bring together Midwestern experts in membrane biology, trafficking and signal transduction

Agenda

- ❖ National Keynote Speaker: Dr. Peter Novick, University of California, San Diego
- ❖ Midwestern Keynote Speaker: Dr. William Klein, Northwestern University
- ❖ Talks by researchers from the Midwest area
- ❖ Oral and Poster presentations by graduate students and postdocs
- ❖ Career discussion panel (academia, industry, science education and more!)

Poster abstract submission deadline – October 12th 2017

General registration deadline – October 21st 2017

Register here- https://purdue.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_8eL5kAnWzTr5n3n

For enquires, contact:

McKeith Pearson- mnpearso@purdue.edu

Co-organized by:

Purdue Biology Graduate Student Association.

DEPARTMENT OF BOTANY

PLANT PATHOLOGY
PURDUE UNIVERSITY • WEST LAFAYETTE, IN

PURDUE UNIVERSITY
CENTER FOR CANCER RESEARCH

Executive Vice President for Research and Partnerships

Center for Basic and Applied Studies of Biological Membranes

PURDUE
SCIENCE

