

Some pain

A hand-drawn diagram illustrating a sentence structure. The text "D N NP" is written in black ink. The "D" is crossed out by a red diagonal line. The "N" is circled in blue, and the "NP" is circled in yellow. A large green oval encloses the "N" and "NP". A large red oval encloses the entire diagram. A small blue circle is also present near the "N".

$$D = N \rightarrow NP$$
