

2010 Agricultural Safety & Health Forum

Beck Ag Center
4540 US 52 West
West Lafayette, IN
September 16, 2010

Agenda

- 8:30 – 9:00 Registration (Coffee, Juice, Donuts)
- 9:00 Welcome and Overview of the Day – Lisa Chaudion, President, IRSHC
- 9:15 Why do farmers care about farm safety and health issues –
Isabella Chism, Indiana Farm Bureau
- 9:45 Summary of the farm-related fatality and injury problem in Indiana –
Gail Deboy, Purdue University
- 10:00 – 10:45 Concurrent Sessions for Adults and Youth
- Adult Sessions – select one
 1. Simulated grain bin rescue – Steve Wettschurack and Steve Riedel, Purdue University
 2. Electrical and power line safety – Chuck Tiemann, Statewide REMC and Wayne Newhart, Retired REMC
 3. Anhydrous Ammonia Safety – Jim Sweigart, Ag Best
 - Youth Sessions – Three Team Competition
 1. Pre-operation safety inspection – Gail Deboy
 2. Tractor driving skills course – Dr. Ernie Sheldon and Shannon Snyder
 3. Assistive technology for farmers with disabilities – Steve Swain, Breaking New Ground Resource Center, Nellie Bell, Indiana FFA
 - Gearing Up for Safety Training for Ag Educators – Shannon Snyder and Myron McClure, Purdue University
- 10:45 – 11:15 Break
- 11:15 – 12:00 Concurrent sessions for Adults and Youth – repeat of first sessions
- 12:00 – 12:45 Lunch and Awards
- 12:45 Why FFA is a key player in promoting farm safety – Nellie Bell, Indiana State FFA Office
- 1:00 – 1:30 LifeLine Helicopter Landing
- 1:30 – 2:15 Concurrent Sessions for Adults and Youth
- Adults – teaching risk management to youth – Mark Tucker, Purdue Youth Development and Agricultural Education
 - Youth – Simulated grain bin rescue – Steve Wettschurack and Steve Riedel
- 2:15 – 2:30 Wrap-up, door prizes, and questions