Indiana Rural Safety & Health Council
May 23, 2006
Farm Bureau Building
Indianapolis, IN

Mac Legault, vice president, called the meeting to order at 9:00 a.m. at the Farm Bureau Building in Indianapolis. The following individuals were present:

Rick Ainsworth, Farm Bureau Insurance
Lisa Chaudion, Indiana Young Farmers
Bill Field, Purdue University
Mac Legault, Indiana State University
Ernie Sheldon, Indiana State University
Roger Tormoehlen, Purdue University

The minutes of the April 25th meeting were approved. There was no treasurer's report.

Feedback on the proposed endowment guidelines were discussed. A revised version will be distributed at the next meeting. The goal will be to announce the endowment at the Ag Safety and Health Forum.

Mac Legault and Ernie Sheldon agreed to organize a fund raising plan for the endowment that will be presented at the Forum on September 13th. The plan will cover a one-year period with all funds received to establish the principles for the endowment.

The revised awards program was approved and Bill Field will have it added to the Council web site. Award nominations will be needed by July 31st for review at the August meeting. Several potential candidates were discussed.

Details at Brock have yet to be worked out. Dennis Meredith is working on them along with trying to get a representative from state government there. A tentative agenda is attached.

The next meeting is scheduled for August 16th at 10:00 a.m. at Farm Bureau.
