

Meeting Friday 29th March 2019:

- Dr. Morgan present; Vinny, Mihit, Kaustabh, Kai absent
- General Discussion
 - Second round of prospective students today
- Individual Updates
 - President: David Rokke
 - Getting speakers for Symposium and GSO seminar next sem
 - Updates from safety meeting
 - Students have been eating outside some labs; unsure if research lab or course lab
 - Researchers seen walking around in labs without safety glasses
 - Researchers have been wearing gloves outside one-glove zone
 - Co-curricular: Aditi Khot
 - Truth and Beauty seminar on 11th April. Prof. Beaudoris
 - First Year: Jessica Torres, Mihit Parekh
 - Office clean-up on Fri 5th April
 - Will get coffee in travel packs
 - Outreach : Aidan Coffey
 - Attempted contact with Solar Rollers; still coordinating dates
 - Will coordinate with Tree Lafayette for Arbor Day
 - Social: Ayşe Eren
 - Laser tag; GSO might sponsor
 - Book shelf
 - Pint night
 - Barbeque social
 - Sports: Kyle Weideman
 - March Madness sports ball going well
 - Student Advocacy: Blake Finkenauer
 - Attended grad committee meeting
 - Faculty members on second quals are asked to read comments from faculty in first quals attempt
 - Mentioned idea about giving feedback after 2nd quals; but need to follow up in next meeting
 - Outstanding mentor award chosen
 - Safety meeting with Dr Gaby Nagy
 - Morgan:
 - Currently, grades are unsatisfactory or satisfactory
 - There have been cases of conflict between students and advisors on the grounds of expectations not being laid out clearly
 - For ChE698 and ChE699, every sem students must sign contract with advisor regarding expectations for research